

Bill Jordan
First Year Apprentice and Veteran

Bill Jordan is coming up on his second year of apprenticeship in the Helmets to Hardhats program. A native of Gaithersburg, Maryland, Bill joined the Marine Corps where his enlistment lead him on a five year journey including two deployments to Afghanistan and one to Libya, at the U.S. Embassy in Tripoli.

Bill began his Helmets to Hardhats apprenticeship with Plumbers Local 5 in Washington, DC about two weeks post active duty. Bill believes he and his family will benefit from his career opportunity through the Helmets to Hardhats program by maintaining financial security and being covered under union medical insurance.

Bill looks forward to a bright and prosperous future in the plumbing trades.
