

Darrel Roberts
Executive Director

Darrell Roberts is the Executive Director of the Center for Military Recruitment, Assessment and Veterans Employment (CMRAVE), a 501 (c)(3), non-profit, which maintains the Helmets to Hardhats Program. Helmets to Hardhats serves nationally to help transitioning military service members, National Guard, Veterans, and Reservists find careers in the construction industry.

Over the past few years, the Helmets to Hardhats program has been responsible for helping thousands of military service members connect to quality training and careers. Darrell is a U.S. Navy veteran and also served in the Pennsylvania Army National Guard as part of a NATO-led peacekeeping mission in Kosovo. He is a journeyman sheet metal worker and a member of Central Pennsylvania Sheet Metal Workers International Association, Local #19 Philadelphia, PA.

Darrell has experience as a foreman on multiple construction projects throughout the Pennsylvania, Maryland, and New Jersey areas.